

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

The Parishes of Upton and those of Blewbury and Thorpe, have been so intermingled in times gone by, that it is difficult now to separate the entries that belong to one from the other. In former times Upton was a dependency or chapelry of Blewbury, but since 1861, Upton and Aston Upthorpe (or Thorpe, or Throp for short) have been constituted a separate ecclesiastical parish.

Under these circumstances it is not surprising that the Registers of Upton are not very continuous, and that frequent gaps are to be found. It is probable that the Registers of Blewbury contain many entries relating to Upton people, so that it would be desirable, at some future time, to print those of Blewbury in order to supplement the present volume.

The Register of Upton consists of one volume, measuring 13 by 15½ inches, and contains thirty-one parchment leaves and is bound also in parchment, and is in pretty fair condition. On the the outside is UPTON REGISTER fr. A.D. 1688. It commences, however, in 1588 and ends, for Baptisms and Burials in 1741, and for Marriages in 1735. Down to 1621 the handwriting is uniform, it having been copied about that period, no doubt in accordance with the 70th Canon, which directed that all the old paper books in use since 1536 should be transcribed into parchment volumes.

Pages 11 and 12, 15 and 16, 17 and 18, 19 and 20, 21 and 22, 23 and 24, 59 and 60, 61 and 62, have been cut off at various points, but it does not seem to have been done maliciously or with a view to destroy any entries, but merely for the sake of the parchment, and for the same reason, apparently, five leaves have been taken out between pages 18 and 19, five leaves between pages 22 and 23, five leaves between pages 46 and 47, and two leaves between pages 48 and 49.

There are also four loose sheets with entries written upon them, which have been lettered A, B, C and D, for sake of reference.

In printing this register the chronological arrangement has been adhered to as far as circumstances will allow, so that the sequence of the pages will be better understood from the following list :—
